

KANE VICTORS OVER C. C. A. A. IN FAST INTERESTING GAME

In one of the prettiest games of the national pastime that has been seen in this neck o' the woods for many a year, Manager Lytle's Pets went down to defeat yesterday before the doughty Red Murray's warriors from the little city in the north-western corner of the Commonwealth. The final score 2-0.

When you look at the box score and note that only seven men over the possible minimum of 54 faced both pitchers you'll realize that it was one game, Alphonse, some game. Hughey, "Old Reliable" Conklin was Manager Lytle's selection for the mound work and let us tell you that Old Reliable looked more like a million dollars than he ever did in his career. You will note that Kane only garnered five very much scattered hits from Hughey's seven stand-pas of work and he was still going strong when Manager Lytle relieved him to try and break up Waters' good work.

In the first canto Strauss' error in judgment on a fly ball was responsible for Kane's tally. It happened like this. Buffington came up and went out via the ground route, Yapp o Yates. Start expired on the same road. Murray then got a chance to catch first for a safety. Then came the disaster. Munroe walked up to the rubber and poled one of Hughey's bunters into deep center field and Strauss misjudged the ball and Murray crossed the pan with first tally.

In the sixth game, an error by Martin, two well placed hits by Murray and Munroe chased another tally across the rubber and thus ended the scoring for the entire afternoon's work.

Levan brought the fans to their feet in the eighth when he made a full circus stunt catch of a Kane hit that had all the earmarks of a bangle hit, might have been disastrous to Martin, having the sample of other him, earning the couple of sips that were in part excusable for he was going after everything that was within miles of him, accepted eight out of ten chances to do his duty, and he did it as nicely as has ever been done on the local ball lot this season.

To the visitors the pitching of Waters was the real feature of the game. He was steady and never in trouble at any stage of the con-

Luffington seemed to be the to knock the pill and he fielded seven hits without a hit.

 Then in its entirety it was one of the cleanest and fastest games that Mangler had ever staged this season.

From Tanlac Almost Unbelievable, She Says

"It is almost unbelievable that the wonderful results I have received from Tanlac could be accomplished in so short a time," said Mrs. Thomas Nellist, wife of a well known philanthropist and rescue worker, residing at 59 Tenth St., Buffalo, N. Y.

"For eight months," declared Mrs. Nellist, "I was in very bad health, and two weeks ago I couldn't even walk outside the house. My stomach was all up-set and my food failed to nourish and strengthen me. Gas formed in my stomach, pressing up around my heart and weakening me so that I had to lie down and rest several times a day. I was so nervous the least little thing annoyed me and at night I was so restless I would lie awake for hours. And when I did doze off to sleep I had terrible dreams and woke up in a fright. I also had a persistent irritating, burning and aching pain in my throat glands, which set me to coughing, especially at night. My feet pained me so bad that I don't think it could have hurt worse had someone been cutting them with a knife. I got so weak and helpless that I couldn't do a thing about the house."

"I saw none of the local papers what Tanlac was doing and began taking it, and the way two bottles of this medicine has built me up is simply astonishing. Why, the pain has gone from my feet almost entirely and today I'm up and about doing my housework and am able to go wherever I please. I'm no longer troubled with gas on my stomach, my throat is never irritated and at night I sleep just fine. The good I have received from Tanlac is worth hundreds of times more than the medicine cost me, and I give it my highest recommendation."

Tanlac is sold by all leading druggists.

This fact developed here at conference yesterday incident to a meeting of the Democratic state committee. Ten county chairman party candidates and leaders and the young lieutenant of the Presidential candidate with his much advertised speech was part of the program. In effort to have the county believe that Cox actually expects to divide the electoral vote of the Keystone state it was admitted that he must make the circuit in the commonwealth possibly in the hard coal regions and Philadelphia.

In conference that Judge E. J. "Boss" Young, of Ohio, told the Pennsylvania leaders that the country was to be given to us and that the Coxes found the state a deplorable territory and the thought we could do to the floor of the time committee. Obviously the leaders themselves entertained no such thought. It is quite apparent that none of the committee was indeed. But they all believe that the Key to Democracy went through the form of a real fight, and that Cox could help in the election by taking, here, the confidence might instill into the hearts of many here, and that means acceptance of votes in the way.

A combination of these factors, together with the negative publicity from the modification of the Act of 1913 on prohibition enforcement law with respect to the production of opium, led to the final statement:

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

A gentleman from the upper end of the county spent several hours in Curwensville yesterday looking up a suitable room in which to establish a dental office. If a town with less than three thousand of a population can support five medical men, there surely ought to be business enough to maintain two dentists. The town's business activity and schools looked good to him, and if suitable quarters can be obtained it will not be long before he will become a full-fledged resident citizen.

Owing to a notice posted by the two town assessors, all women who desire to vote at the November election must appear at the polling places of each ward and have their names registered between the dates of August 21st and September 1st.

At a regular meeting of the school board held in the High School building on Tuesday evening, a full corps of teachers for the borough schools was chosen. The term will open on Monday, under the following instructors: R. A. Shields, Lois Gregory, Ruth Collins, Isabel Hanford, Grace Renner, Lucinda Mattem, Meda Reynolds, Kathryn Porter, Louisa Kistetter, Frances Schorr, Eva Dale, Margaret Hile, Ruth Frankhouser, Ray Frankhouser, Mrs. Jay Murphy, Marian Underwood, Ruth Mauney and Bernice La Bode. One other instructor was elected who resides in DuBois, but the writer failed to ascertain her name, although she will be attached to the High School faculty.

The Progress man received many congratulatory words for the clear and concise manner in which he stated that Curwensville should awaken to the fact that they now had an elegant chance to buy the Park Hotel buildings and grounds and convert the same into a community house. The item has stirred up an interest among those who had never given the matter a thought before.

Mrs. L. C. Bloom and Mrs. Grace Bloomer, both former residents of Curwensville, spent a portion of this week with friends and relatives.

Curwensville's population was depopulated to some extent yesterday, some going to the Fruit Hill picnic, others to Clearfield to witness the Clearfield-Kane ball game, while the third ball team went to New Milford to try their luck at winning a game.

Miss Barry and daughter, Miss Katherine and Mrs. D. R. Woodridge of Clearfield were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lew J. La Porte yesterday.

Mack's Crescent ball team defeated a fast aggregation of ball tossers from Falls Creek on the home ground Wednesday evening by a score of 4 to 5. The contest was sharply contested by both sides. Willis Dyer hit the pitcher's box for the Crescents, and his work was the best witnessed here this season. The batting of Olson and Nepp were features which went far toward winning the victory. The Crescents now have two pitchers that can be relied upon for good service, one of them, "Mick" Rider, will pitch in the game with Big Run Saturday, when the Crescents count largely on winning another victory.

Word has been received by relatives of Miss Mae Mallon that she landed in New York this week from Paris, France, accompanying the body of W. K. Vanderbilt, who died in the hospital of which Miss Mallon had charge. She is expected to arrive in her Curwensville home on Saturday. Miss Mallon is one of the superintendents of the American hospital in Paris.

Reports from men employed in the mines and other local industries indicate that they are going to turn out in parade on Labor Day almost to a man. Nearly every merchant and business man of this community will be represented by a float of some kind or another. If nothing turns up to mar the proceedings as progressing, Curwensville promises to have the largest parade on the street in the town's history. So far as the writer can ascertain there is no friction among committeemen or others who are putting forth every effort to give the people a full day of fun and frolic.

Lawrence Way went to Punxsutawney yesterday for the purpose of business and pleasure.

OLD MAN DAVIS CELEBRATES

As near as we can guess, about thirty years ago, more or less, Alton C. Davis, now residing in Clearfield, first saw the light of day. Annually he celebrates in his own quiet way, a birthday, but this year he was assisted by a host of friends to celebrate it more fully. Day before yesterday was the birthday and on Saturday night in the evening he found a large group of well-wishers gathered around him at a banquet. Of course the veteran was seated at the head of the table and the best of the support of the present were Mr. and Mrs. J.

landed in their activities."

Calling attention to Chairman Hays' statement that $3,000,000 was being raised, Governor Cox said that yesterday's papers carried a statement from Upham that the Republican total would be about $7,500,000.

"From the evidence which we shall submit," Governor Cox added, "I think you will agree that we are justified in multiplying Mr. Upham's figures by two."

Governor Cox, standing staunchly by his charges that an attempt to purchase the Presidency was being made, declared that "the senatorial oligarchy and their friends are harking back to the day of Mark Hanna," stating that in the 1896 campaign which Mr. Hanna managed $16,500,000 was spent.

Governor Cox did not arrive at Syria Mosque until 9 o'clock. For three hours the crowd which jammed the building had been waiting for him. When he arrived, he found the boulevard in front of the Mosque and a large portion of the Memorial Hall grounds black with people. Upon insistent calls for a speech, he talked to the overflow outside audience before going inside.

Meanwhile, the crowd in the Mosque had been entertained by music and speeches by County Chairman Lawrence, National Committeeman Guffey and by former Congressman Wooda Carr of Uniontown. It was 9:15 o'clock before Governor Cox entered the Mosque. He was heavily applauded.

Couldn't Get the Idea.

Elmer's father had purchased a hunting dog which he called a setter, and the boy was greatly interested in it. After a few days of observation, however, he announced: "I don't see why you call him a setter. He never sits; he's always either standing or on the run."

DOLLAR DAY HUGE SUCCESS---MANY TAKE ADVANTAGE

Dollar Day, 1920, will have passed into history when most of our readers sit down to peruse these columns. It has been the most successful in the history of the event and many a bargain hunter has gone home tired but happy in the savings that they have made.

From the first peep of day the stores were thronged with shoppers. They came on the trains, on foot, in automobiles and in wagons and if there had been a landing stage and an airplane service between this city and the surrounding towns they would have come by that route.

The merchants gave good values in most instances and the buyers were well satisfied with their purchases. The weatherman was kind and lived up to his forecast of yesterday.

Everybody's tired but everybody's happy. And some folks are already looking forward to next year.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Don't stay gray. Nobody can tell when you darken gray, faded hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By a long and any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly, but nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it returns to its natural color and beauty, and the hair grows again.
